

The Commission's recommendations, including a draft of proposed legislation, shall then be submitted to the President who shall submit the report and his own recommendations to the Congress; (c) requires that the Commission report monthly, or as otherwise directed, to the House and Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committees; (d) requires that the Commission periodically consult with appropriate employee and professional organizations; (e) provides that the organizational unit established by section 301 shall cease to exist upon submission of the Commission's report to the Congress.

COST

This legislation will result in no increased cost to the Government.

